I am writing to thank you for your letter of October 26 addressed to Mr. Dulles, in which you suggest the possibility that Mr. Dulles might like to speak with [redacted] sometime during his present travels in Europe.

In view of his very tight travel schedule and the fact that Mr. Dulles does not plan to visit [redacted] at all on this trip, he will not find it possible to get together with [redacted] such as I know he would like to do so. Perhaps he will find another opportunity at an early date to meet with her.

Sincerely,
